4 Holding Meetings in Cloud Meeting Rooms

After an enterprise purchases a cloud meeting room and assigns an administrator to the cloud meeting room, the administrator can use the cloud meeting room to hold meetings. Other users can join meetings but cannot create them. If an enterprise has multiple cloud meeting rooms, these meeting rooms are independent. Each meeting can use only one cloud meeting room.

Process

Logging In to the Huawei Cloud Meeting Management Platform

You can use Internet Explorer 11, Google Chrome 46, Firefox 41, or their later versions to access the Huawei Cloud Meeting Management Platform. Choose either of the following login methods:

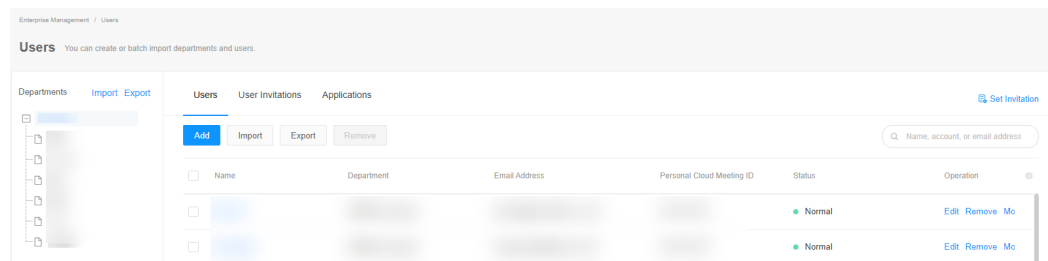

- Using an enterprise administrator account
Obtain the enterprise administrator account and password from the email sent by Huawei Cloud Meeting. This account can be used only to log in to the Huawei Cloud Meeting Management Platform. If you need to log in to the Huawei Cloud Meeting client, create a standard user account first.
- Using a Huawei Cloud account
On the Huawei Cloud Meeting website, click Console, enter the Huawei Cloud account and password, and click Log In. On the Huawei Cloud Meeting console, click Access Management Platform.

(Optional) Creating a User Account

To enable users in your enterprise to use Huawei Cloud Meeting, you must first create accounts for them.

Step 1 In the navigation pane, choose Enterprise Management > Users and click Add.

Step 2 Fill in required information and click Save.

Step 3 The new user is displayed under Enterprise Management > Users.

The account details will be sent to the user by email.

----End

You can also import user accounts. For details, see Managing Users.

Allocating a Cloud Meeting Room

To enable a user to be the administrator of a cloud meeting room, allocate a cloud meeting room to that user.

Step 1 In the navigation pane of the Management Platform, choose Enterprise Management > Cloud Meeting Rooms and click Allocate in the Soft Client column in the row containing the target cloud meeting room.

Step 2 In the displayed dialog box, select a user.

Step 3 Click OK to allocate the cloud meeting room to the user.

----End

For details about operations that an enterprise administrator can perform, see Enterprise Administrator Guide.

Downloading and Logging In to a Client

You can log in to the desktop client or mobile app as the administrator of a cloud meeting room.

Step 1 Download and install the client.

- Download the desktop client from the Huawei Cloud Meeting website.
- Download the mobile app in any of the following ways:

- Download the mobile app from the Huawei Cloud Meeting website.
- Search for and download Huawei Cloud Meeting on AppGallery or App Store.

Step 2 Log in to the client using the account of the cloud meeting room administrator specified in Allocating a Cloud Meeting Room. The account is the account in the Soft Client column displayed in the figure below.

NOTE

Only the administrator of the cloud meeting room can use the cloud meeting room to create meetings. Other enterprise users can only join meetings in this cloud meeting room.

----End

Creating a Meeting

- Using the Huawei Cloud Meeting Management Platform
  - a. Log in to the Huawei Cloud Meeting Management Platform as the cloud meeting room administrator specified in Allocating a Cloud Meeting Room.
  - b. On the Create Meeting page, set meeting parameters and click Create.
